SHORT BIO

Lucky 7 plays the hot jazz of New Orleans and the dance music of the 1920s, '30s and '40s. Trombonist Scott Larson started the band twenty-five years ago, and it has worked Bay Area rooms ever since, from the Amnesia of yesteryear and the Make-Out Room to happy hours at The Chapel and Sunday sets at Drake's Dealership in Oakland. It is live music for dancers: four horns up front, guitar, bass and drums underneath, playing originals alongside favorite covers from Duke Ellington to Cab Calloway. On December 15 vocalist Allegra Bandy joins the band at the Woodchopper's Ball. Twenty-five years later, we come out to play.
